Answer one of the questions.

1. In her novel Jane Eyre, Charlotte Brontë describes Jane's development from childhood to adulthood. Discuss the various stages Jane goes through and how she develops as a person, and especially as a woman. You should pay particular attention to her relationship with the main male characters in the novel, i.e. John Reed, Mr Brocklehurst, Mr Rochester and St John Rivers. Avoid irrelevant plot summary.

OR

2. Compare and contrast Virginia Woolf's "The Legacy" and D.H. Lawrence's "The Horse-Dealer's Daughter" with particular reference to the pressures experienced by the female characters and the reasons for their decisions.
